

Announcement of Organizational Changes

TOKYO — May 9, 2025 — NTT Corporation (Headquarters: Chiyoda, Tokyo; President and CEO: Akira Shimada; hereinafter "NTT") will restructure its organization as outlined below.

Details of Organizational Changes

(1) Establishment of Legal Department

In response to the increasing complexity and diversity of legal risks associated with the expansion of overseas operations and the use of technologies such as AI, the company will dissolve the Legal Office, which is currently part of the General Affairs Department, and establish the Legal Department as a department directly reporting to the President.

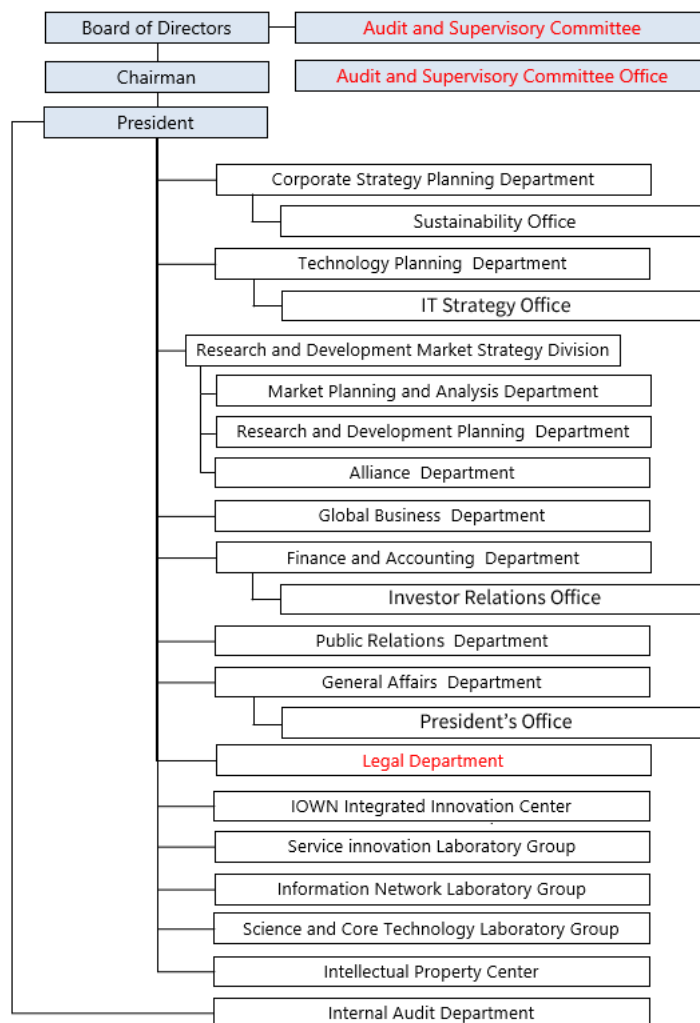

(2) Establishment of Audit and Supervisory Committee Office

In line with the company's transition to a Company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee, aimed at further enhancing its corporate governance framework, the Office of Audit & Supervisory Board Members will be dissolved and replaced with the newly established Audit and Supervisory Committee Office.

Effective Date

Thursday, June 19, 2025

New Organization Chart

About NTT

NTT contributes to a sustainable society through the power of innovation. We are a leading global technology company providing services to consumers and businesses as a mobile operator, infrastructure, networks, applications, and consulting provider. Our offerings include digital business consulting, managed application services, workplace and cloud solutions, data center and edge computing, all supported by our deep global industry expertise. We are over $92B in revenue and 330,000 employees, with $3.6B in annual R&D investments. Our operations span across 80+ countries and regions, allowing us to serve clients in over 190 of them. We serve over 75% of Fortune Global 100 companies, thousands of other enterprise and government clients and millions of consumers.

Media contact

NTT

Public Relations

Inquiry form